MAY 24-25, 1968

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS. — President,

Secretary, Mr. Roy A. Hovey, 50 Park Avenue, Stoneham 02180; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, Jr., 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Chairman; Rev. Clarence W. Fuller, Rev. Harold G. Leland.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 88 Tremont Street, Boston 02108.

Should anyone desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement exists between The Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the State Board turns over to the National Board all of the net income from its endowment funds and receives, in turn, such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the funds assigned to the Pension Boards in the budget of the United Church of Christ.

This year book is dedicated to The Rev. Dr. Myron W. Fowell who served as Secretary of the Conference from August 1, 1942 to August 31, 1968. In addition to serving as Secretary, he will long be remembered for his strong leadership in social action.

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. 02108.

All missionary money should be made payable to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ and sent to: Attention of Miss Pauline Cutler, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

Unless requested otherwise, these contributions, beyond the sum the Conference retains for its own work (from undesignated money), are sent on to the Treasurer of the United Church of Christ in New York, where they are divided among the Boards and Instrumentalities according to the agreed upon percentages.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit monthly such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum as Fellowship dues equivalent to $1.50 for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1968, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to the Conference Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 02108.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured for One Dollar, upon application to the Registrar, 14 Beacon St., Boston 02108. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Registrar.

The National Year Book is available to church clerks and retired ministers upon request to the United Church of Christ, 297 Park Avenue South, New York City 10010.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

ORIGIN OF DOMESTIC MISSIONARY SOCIETY

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

ORIGIN OF MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE

The General Association of Massachusetts came into being in 1802. This ultimately became the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. The Conference then merged with the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society in 1927, to become the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. In 1953 the name was changed to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. In 1966 the name was changed again to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. The Conference assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of fifteen persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and inter-denominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

ARTICLE I

Purpose and Terminology

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ . . . and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."

2. Whenever in these By-Laws the word Conference is used it shall be held to refer to the Corporation as a Conference of the United Church of Christ and as a Conference of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Churches.

3. All churches which are members of associations in voluntary fellowship with and recognized by the Conference, whether or not such churches are a part of the United Church of Christ, are entitled to elect voting members of the Conference in accordance with these By-Laws.

4. Whenever in these By-Laws the word Area is used, it shall be held to refer to those associations or combinations of the associations decided upon by the agreement of the respective associations and recognized by the Conference.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of an association in fellowship with the Conference may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and additional delegates (one for every three hundred members or major fraction thereof in excess of 300 members) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors, and Christian education directors holding United Church of Christ certification, of each church (who shall be members ex-officio) of the Conference including the members of the Board of Directors and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus, the committee members of the Conference, ministers called to extra parochial tasks within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have ministerial standing in an association in fellowship with the Conference.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Directors, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Recording Secretary, all of whom shall be elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year or until their successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer and such other officers as the Conference may from time to time elect. Any of the said Executive Officers except those of President, Secretary and Treasurer may be abolished by vote of the Conference. They shall be nominated by the Board of Directors meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year or until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Directors determine.

3. The Moderator, or in his absence, the Vice-Moderator, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

4. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Directors, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Directors among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of Conference Executives) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Directors measures for meeting such opportunities.

5. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Area Ministers and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the Annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Directors from time to time direct.

6. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Directors and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Directors may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors. The Assistant Treasurer shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the Treasurer, and act in his stead in event of incapacity or absence.

7. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Directors may, at their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VI

Board of Directors

1. The Conference shall elect by ballot at each annual meeting a Board of Directors, one Director for every 8000 members or major fraction thereof, from the churches in each of the Areas of the Conference, provided that each Area shall have at least one Director. One-third of the members of the Board of Directors shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. The President, the Moderator and the Vice-Moderator of the Conference shall also be members ex officio. The terms of Directors, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected. No member of the Board of Directors, having served a full term of four years, shall be eligible for re-election for one year.

2. The Board of Directors shall have and may exercise all of the powers of the Conference between meetings of the Conference and actions taken shall be reported to the next annual meeting of the Conference.

3. The Board of Directors shall have responsibility for policy formulation, program development, coordination between the functional committees of the Conference, evaluation and planning. It shall employ staff and other agents in support of Conference activities and operations.

4. Nine members shall constitute a quorum.

5. At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference, the Board of Directors shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman and another member to serve as vice chairman for the ensuing year.

6. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these

By-Laws, the Board of Directors shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all of its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board of Directors shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once a year by certified public accountants selected by the Board.

7. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board of Directors shall in particular have the following powers:

- (a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint committees and delegate any of its powers to such committees.
- (b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.
- (c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.
- (d) To remove any officer or director of the Conference who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.
- (e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the churches of the Conference.
- (f) To direct efforts to promote ecumenical concerns, interests and relationships of the Conference.
- (g) To direct efforts of evaluation and planning with respect to the program and activities of the Conference.
- (h) To direct efforts of coordination in the program and activities of the Conference through the appointment of one or more Directors to the functional Conference Committees as liaison between the Committees and the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff beyond the close of the Annual Meeting following his 70th birthday. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Directors temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Directors shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 11% of the charge on his salary.

3. Lay members of the staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary plus such amount as the Conference as employer shall pay for his United States Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at a place designated by the Board of Directors on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Directors may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that notice of any special meetings so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, the Vice-Moderator or, in the absence of both of them some member of the Board of Directors shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall adopt and propose to the churches the annual rate of Fellowship dues for the expenses and other purposes of the Conference. The Conference, upon recommendations of the Board of Directors, shall at each annual meeting determine the amount to be retained from Our Christian World Mission giving of the churches.

ARTICLE IX

Committees and Councils

1. Immediately after the opening of the Annual Meeting, the Moderator shall appoint:

- (a) A committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.
- (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through the Board of Directors or some committee of the Conference.

2. There shall be a Program Committee, of which the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting, shall be ex-officiis. At each annual meeting, three (3) members, at least one of whom shall be a member of a Conference committee, shall be elected by voice vote for terms of three (3) years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting.

3. The following Conference Committees and Councils shall be constituted each with twenty (20) members, four (4) from each of the (5) Areas within the Conference, one (1) member from each Area to be elected each year by voice vote to serve a term of four (4) years. No member of a Conference committee, having served a full term of four (4) years, shall be eligible for re-election for one (1) year. As far as possible, an equal distribution of ministers, laymen and laywomen shall be maintained in the membership of the Conference committees.

- (a) A Church and Community Committee shall be concerned with the outreach of the churches and the Conference in the community, whether rural, suburban, or urban and for social action in developing programs and services, policies and procedures for confronting situations and conditions arising out of changing social and economic environment in the general community.
- (b) A Church and Education Committee shall be concerned with the educational thrust of the churches and the Conference in all aspects and shall function to provide and develop and assist educational programs and services in the churches and among other groupings.

- (c) Church and Leadership Committee shall be concerned with leadership discovery and manpower utilization through the various organizations of the Conference. This committee shall make nominations for each office, committee, board or council to be elected at the annual meeting, when nominations are not otherwise provided for in these By-Laws. It shall also nominate delegates to the General Synod. It shall suggest at the request of the Board of Directors nominees to fill any vacancies occurring between annual meetings.
- (d) A Church and Ministry Committee shall be concerned with the churches and their responsibilities to establish and maintain high standards in fellowship with other churches, whose standing is held in the associations. It shall be concerned also with the ministry, whose standing is held in the associations, to establish and maintain high academic, professional, and moral standards of ordained and professional personnel. It shall be concerned further with the relationships between churches and ordained and professional personnel, and the welfare of the churches and associations, in order that the whole Church may be strengthened.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Church and Ministry Committee and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a member association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

- (e) A Church and Mission Committee shall be concerned with the mission of the churches and the Conference. It shall encourage the understanding and support by the churches in ecumenical mission, Our Christian World Mission, Massachusetts Ministries, city missionary societies' programs, special fund raising efforts and other mission endeavors. It shall invite and evaluate financial requests for mission projects and recommend priorities to the Budget Committee of the Board of Directors.

4. All committees are free to organize their work, to establish sub-committees for special assignments, and to co-opt other persons with special interest and skill as required.

5. A person who is a member of any committee ex-officio shall be entitled to vote.

6. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports need not be read to the Conference but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all of the topics presented in the reports.

7. Such committees, boards, councils or other ad hoc groups as the Conference may vote to constitute or recognize shall be established by voice vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Directors shall present at each annual meeting a list of committees, boards, councils or other ad hoc groups, the appointment of which it recommends.

8. The Conference recognizes a Council of the Laity as a movement of spiritual renewal in the life of the churches and the Conference.

It shall be the responsibility of the Council of the Laity to increase, develop and coordinate the activities and participation of the laity through a process of continuing education and training; to assist the churches to develop programs which will train and free the laity to participate in the whole task of the Church.

ARTICLE X

Relationships

1. As a Conference of the United Church of Christ, the Massachusetts Conference is a body of the United Church of Christ and is related to the General Synod as described in the constitution and by-laws of the United Church of Christ. It discharges those duties and provides those services set forth in its own charter and by-laws and which are not inconsistent to the constitution and by-laws of the United Church of Christ.

2. Delegates of the Conference to the General Synod, as provided for in the constitution and by-laws of the United Church of Christ are elected from the membership of the churches in the Massachusetts Conference which are affiliated with the United Church of Christ by voice vote at a meeting of the Conference.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect seven members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, two members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years, and a third member to be elected in any year to serve for a period of three years whenever necessary to satisfy the requirement of seven members. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words, "Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ" around the circumference between these circles and the words, "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented by the Board of Directors or through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

All proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Directors.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES
169th ANNUAL MEETING
of the
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

May 24-25, 1968

OLD SOUTH CHURCH

Boston, Massachusetts

On Friday morning, May 24, 1968, prior to the opening business session of the Annual Meeting, Special Interest Meetings were held as follows: Church and Community, Trinity Church, Copley Square; Church and Education and Committee of the Laity, Old South Church where two performances of the play, "Riot" were given; Church and Ministry, First Baptist Church, Boston; Church and Mission, Church of the Covenant, Boston, at which meeting two guests. Rev. Joseph H. Evans, Secretary of the United Church of Christ and Rev. Herbert E. Van Meter, General Secretary for Interpretation and Personnel of the United Church Board for World Ministries, spoke.

Mr. David W. Bartlett, Moderator, called the meeting to order at 2:15 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Old South Church, Copley Square, Boston, using a gavel once presented to Dr. Myron W. Fowell in recognition of his work with the Council for Christian Social Action.

The Rev. Harold R. Fray, Chaplain, led the opening worship and noting the 90th birthday of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, the hymn, "God of Grace and Gold of Glory" was sung.

Dr. Frederick M. Meek, minister of Old South Church, brought the greetings of the host church.

The Moderator appointed the following committees:

Business Committee: Mr. Ralph F. Tuller, Arlington, Chairman; Mrs. Keith Baldwin, Winchester; Mr. Ralph R. Johnson, Dalton; Rev. Robert W. Little, Holden; Rev. Robert E. Scott, Weston.

Credentials Committee: Rev. J. Thurston Powell, Tewksbury, Chairman; Mrs. Jean Falconer, Boston; Miss Doris Hillsgrove, Boston; Mrs. Robert C. Ames, Amherst.

Ushers: Rev. Lowell D. Ferris, Wakefield, Chairman; Rev. George Condon, Beverly; Rev. Charles Harper, Boston; Rev. Edward Glennie, Danvers; Rev. Carl Gold, Manomet; Rev. Leon Hermes, Beverly; Rev. Gordon Merton, Uxbridge; Rev. Repton N. Merritt, Dover; Rev. Stanley J. Parker, Hadley; Rev. Foster M. Phillips, Orleans; Rev. Carlyle A. Smith, Chatham; Rev. Arthur F. White, Boxford; Rev. Leonard H. Warner, Holden; Rev. Robert A. Lewis, Chicopee; Rev. Ellsworth Comins, Merrimac.

Mr. Bartlett presented Mr. Loomis Patrick, parliamentarian of the Conference. It was noted that Roberts Rules of Order would be followed in this annual meeting. It was further moved and VOTED: That any member could speak no more than twice and no longer than three minutes at any time on the same question without leave of the Conference.

Dr. and Mrs. John Smith of Ryder Memorial Hospital, Humacao, Puerto Rico, were introduced.

The Rev. H. Milton Bartlett, on behalf of Worcester Association, presented a resolution relating to the manner of election of the Board of Directors. After brief discussion, this matter was referred to the Chairman of the Structures Committee with the understanding that it would be dealt with in his report.

Upon recommendation of the Board of Trustees, it was moved and VOTED: That the following telegram be sent to Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, New York City:

"On this significant occasion of your 90th birthday, we, the delegates and guests of the 169th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, gathered in Boston, salute you and thank God for your lengthy and productive life. May the Lord be with you now and always."

The Moderator called on the Rev. James L. Lancaster, South Hadley, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, for his report:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

How do you sing a swan song? The Board of Trustees goes out of existence, to be replaced by a Board of Directors. This, then, will be the last report to the Conference by a chairman of the Board of Trustees. It is a dubious distinction for the individual who performs that ritual. It is possible that some will rejoice that, at long last, the Trustees have received their proper reward.

I would like to shoot down one common assumption. The Board of Trustees and the Conference Staff do not really constitute "the Enemy." On the whole they are reasonably intelligent, conscientious men and women who have tried hard to do the work of the Conference. There is very little in the form of graft and rewards for trustees, unless you consider a free meal at the Framingham Conference Center to be evidence of riotous living at Conference expense. The trustees are members of churches who are probably more concerned about program, expenses, mission and intelligent stewardship than are most Conference members, but they are certainly representative of our churches.

It is probable that the Board has made its share of mistakes. But I believe that it has rendered significant service to the Conference, especially during the last two years. Considerable credit must be given to the special committees appointed by the trustees for special tasks, such as Structures, Mission Advance, Compensation, Support of Professional Leadership. You will be receiving their reports and recommendations during this meeting, and the arduous and intelligent work that these groups have done deserve that you give their recommendations thoughtful attention with open minds.

Much of our action this year has been in response to action taken at previous meetings of the Conference, and to the guidelines provided by the report of the Arthur D. Little Co. study. The Trustees have taken these steps:

1. A Vice-President for Administration has been elected, relieving Dr. A. Penner of many administrative details, and putting much of the function of the Conference office under the direction of a trained administrator.
2. An Office of Communications has been established. This has been so successful that the multiplying demand for copies of Pilgrim State News, which is distributed free of charge to the churches, has become a minor budgetary problem. And this is only part of Mr. D. Holland's work.
3. The necessary arrangements have been completed for providing each of the five areas of the Conference with a full-time Area Minister. This action not only provides expanded services to churches and ministers in the traditional patterns, but experimental new programs and strategies are being undertaken. We anticipate that this will result in new life and strength in our churches.

4. A Minister for Church and Mission has been elected, replacing the old office of Minister of Mission and Stewardship. We hope that this will be more than a change in title. We expect that it will be a change in dynamics. Rather than providing routine education in Stewardship and Our Christian World Mission for the churches, we expect that there will be developed a basic strategy for the functions and mission of the Conference, establishing priorities and utilizing the resources of the Conference in support of those priorities. We feel that an interesting beginning has already been made in this field.

5. We have also made appreciable resources available for new programs in support of professional leadership, and in facing the urban crisis. The Arthur D. Little report indicated that support of professional leadership was a serious internal problem. The events of the day constantly remind us of the urgency of the urban problems.

6. The program of Mission Advance, and the mission behind the program, have been very much on the mind of the Board these last few years. No matter how much Advance has been flayed verbally, it has had a profound influence upon the life of the Conference. It led to the Arthur D. Little study and important structural changes. The mission itself forced us to really look at the world around us. It even prompted the Board to dip into capital funds to begin urgent and experimental ministries. We have patiently followed the instructions of the annual meetings, step by step, culminating in the Marts & Lundy survey and report. We believe that this whole program has been studied and refined to the point where it is about as good as committee action can make it. It deserves your support.

7. The consolidation of our committee structure into five committees and a council is more than a matter of administrative neatness. The process has challenged the whole Conference organization to restudy function and responsibility. It is assumed that our Conference will express itself in new, different, creative and intelligent ways.

This has been a difficult and exhausting year for the Board of Trustees, and for the excellent, hard-working ad hoc subcommittees. We wrestle with the challenge of program on the one hand, and the limitations of budget on the other. Unfortunately, the budget, which is proposed seven months before it even goes into effect, dictates the program. If only the world didn't change, that might not be too bad. But it would be more in keeping with the need of the world and the nature of the church if the program could dictate the budget. This has real bearing upon the votes you will be asked to make on Fellowship dues and on OCWM retention this year, and in the years ahead. With the new spirit and the new sense of mission and priorities that are being tenderly brought to life in the Conference, the new Board of Directors may well change the shape of the budget considerably in the next year or two. Not so much in terms of money as in terms of a re-allocation of resources available. It is not only possible, it may well be mandatory that some of the concerns, programs and agencies that have received considerable support in the past should be relegated to a minor role in deference to important mission priorities.

I said that it has been a difficult year. It has also been an exciting and hopeful year. More than the submitting of reports and designing of charts has taken place. There is a new sense of stewardship of mission. Although we have cleared away much of the underbrush and are presenting a plan for reorganization and advance, we are at a beginning, not at an end. We have some guidelines and some tools. But those tools must be taken in hand and used by men and women who will really open their minds and hearts to the leading of the Spirit, and respond to His leading with committed intelligence and integrity.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES L. LANCASTER, Chairman

It was moved and

VOTED: That the report of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees be accepted.

Miss Pauline Cutler, Treasurer of the Conference, presented the Treasurer's Report for the year 1967 and spoke to the printed reports in the hands of the delegates. After questions and discussion, it was moved, seconded and VOTED: That the report of the Treasurer to be accepted as printed.

Dr. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Conference, presented the Advance Reports which had been mailed to all delegates in advance of the Annual Meeting and made one correction: on page 6, 4th paragraph, it should read, "West Congregational Church in Peabody," not South Congregational Church. It was moved and seconded and VOTED: That the Advance Reports be accepted as corrected.

The Moderator, with great appreciation, presented Mr. Charles E. Butler, Chairman of the Structures Committee, for his report. Mr. Butler gave a brief history of the work of the committee and then presented the changes in the Conference By-Laws for consideration and action. The Moderator ruled that each Article of the proposed new By-Laws would be considered separately. Following thorough discussion, corrections, action, it was moved and VOTED: That the full report of the Structures Committee be accepted as presented and amended at this meeting and that the Structures Committee be discharged with the profound gratitude of this Conference.

(The By-Laws as revised will be found on page 5 and following in this edition of Conference minutes and reports.)

Ballots were distributed and it was announced that the election of the Conference officers, executive staff and committees would take place on Saturday.

The Rev. Edmund W. Nutting, Rockport, raised a question concerning the length of term of office of executive staff and the matter of election in the strict sense, rather than approval of election by the nominating committee.

It was moved and

VOTED: That the Board of Directors appoint a special study committee made up of 7 individuals, 2 of whom will be members of the Board of Directors, to study the following issues and report to the next Annual Meeting:

- a) Length of terms of office of Conference officers and executive staff;
- b) The matter of a true election with a choice of at least 2 names for each office.

The meeting adjourned at 5:45 p.m., following prayer led by the Chaplain.

Two simultaneous dinner meetings were held in the Statler Hilton Hotel and the Old South Church. At each place, there was Recognition of the new ministers and the ministers observing their 50th year of ordination. The Rev. Joseph Moulton and the Rev. Joseph W. Beach made responses for this latter group of men and their wives. Dr. Joseph H. Evans, Secretary of the United Church of Christ spoke on the subject, "Compelled by Love" and there was a musical program entitled, "O Sing A New Song," featuring "The Soul Masters" from the Ecumenical Center in Roxbury and a choir from a Catholic preparatory school. The Rev. Miss Judith Hjorth and Dr. Meredith B. Hands-picker were in charge of the musical programs.

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1968

The Communion Service was held at 7:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 25, 1968 in Old South Church. Dr. Albert J. Penner and the Rev. Harold R. Fray conducted the service, assisted by members of the executive staff.

A Communion breakfast followed in Old South Church.

Mr. David W. Bartlett, Moderator, called the meeting to order at 9:40 a.m. in the War Memorial Auditorium, Prudential Center, Boston.

The first presentation of the morning was a visual—sound and light—program interpreting the Biennial Emphasis, "The Local Church in God's Mission." As a part of this presentation, a group of members of the Spanish Evangelical Church of Lawrence led the delegates and guests in worship.

Mr. Bartlett called the Rev. J. Allyn Bradford to the platform who, in turn, introduced the Rev. Reginald Terrio, the Roman Catholic priest who is serving as executive secretary of the newly-formed Commission on Christian Unity of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Father Terrio spoke of the work of the Commission and mentioned in particular the recent General Assembly at which 26 of the delegates present were from the United Church of Christ. The Rev. Thomas Howard, Franklin, of our Conference, is the Chairman of this Commission and the Rev. J. Allyn Bradford has been an instigator in this movement.

The Moderator then presented Dr. Albert J. Penner, Minister and President of the Conference, who introduced the Conference Staff. Dr. Penner delivered his report as follows:

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT — MAY, 1968

It is precisely ten years ago that I received a not unexpected telephone call from Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference was in session, informing me that I had been elected President of the Conference. What a different world! And what a different Conference. The name is different. Thirteen of the fifteen members of the executive staff are new. The budget is approximately doubled. The receipts from Our Christian World Mission have increased by $561,550 (a 75% increase). The number of our churches has decreased by 46 (from 585 to 539). The whole style of Conference work has radically changed.

As Christians, we are both driven, and drawn toward closer cooperation: driven by the storm and stress of international and national events, and drawn by the Holy Spirit toward unity such as we have not known for centuries. We are doing joint planning with other denominations. Within the past three years, we have helped to establish at least three new instruments for joint action: the Commission on Church and Race; the Metropolitan Boston Commission, and the Commission on Christian Unity. Recently, I spent an entire morning with other denominational executives in an earnest discussion of joint staffing. Not all the winds that blow today are evil ones; many hold very great promise for good.

One of the winds that holds great promise for good is generated by the current biennial emphasis on THE LOCAL CHURCH IN GOD'S MISSION. We have just caught some of its breezes through the morning presentation. The symbol developed for this emphasis—the helmsman's wheel—is an appropriate guide also when we consider THE CONFERENCE IN GOD'S MISSION. We have done a lot of planning the past two years in our Conference and an astounding number of persons have been engaged in one way or another in this process. We have sought to keep in mind that we are here on the King's business—and not on our own. We are engaged in God's Mission.

I.

Let us begin by seeking to clarify our identity, and ask who we are as a Conference: why do we exist, and whom are we to serve?

We are one of 40 similar structures of the United Church of Christ. The latest yearbook will state that our Conference comprises 539 local churches with approximately 195,000 members. There is a good deal of interesting statistical data available which describes who we are as a Conference. But why do we exist?

One can answer this in many ways but let me attempt to put it in one sentence. The Conference exists to enable the local churches which belong to it better to understand and to fulfill their part in God's Mission.

The Conference does not exist for its own sake. It exists for your sake—you, the people of our churches. The Conference is to help the local church be the Church. How does it help? It helps to provide the local church with appropriate pastoral leadership. This is an important part of my work, and especially also the work of the five Area Ministers, and of the Board of Pastoral Supply whose services we, together with the other New England Conferences, provide. In fact, anything and everything that affects the life and work and welfare of a local church is of interest and concern to the Conference. Curriculum workshops, training programs, conferences for youth and adults, retreats, the facilities of our Conference Centers and many more are opportunities to help the churches in their understanding and fulfillment of mission. The Conference offers a very great variety of ways through which a local church can express itself in action through gifts of money and through personal participation. Few of our churches, left to themselves, would have the resources, or the vision, or the will to carry on the broad kind of mission which partnership in a Conference such as ours provides. The Conference exists to help the local church be the Church.

The Conference exists to support the ministers and other professional staff of our churches, and we take this with utmost seriousness. The key to the effectiveness and success of any institution is leadership. The key to the effectiveness of a local church is in almost every instance the leadership of its ministers. I know about the ministry of the laity, and more power to them. One of our churches where I was on a recent Sunday prints on the front of the calendar: "Ministers—all the members of the Church"; Pastoral Leadership (giving the names of the professional staff). All the members of a local church may ideally exist for ministry, but I haven't yet come across a church in which all are active.

Except, perhaps, in the sense once described by the late Senator Clyde Hoey of North Carolina. He asked a preacher, "How many members have you in your church?" "Fifty," replied the preacher. "And how many of them are active?" "Fifty," came the rejoinder. "What?" asked the Senator, "you have 50 members and all of them are active?" "Yes," said the preacher. "25 active for me, and 25 active against me."

In many churches today—in all denominations alike—there are usually harsh tensions, which often revolve around the minister. This is inevitable in a time as troubled as our own. Great events such as the war in Vietnam, and the racial crisis—with their religious, theological, moral implications, call forth an unusually courageous prophetic witness. Our ministers cannot be silent, and they should not be. The result is often criticism, opposition, and even rejection.

Ministers are leaving their parishes in unusual numbers for secular employment. Our seminaries report that today a smaller proportion of their students expect to enter the parish ministry than has ever been true before.

The Conference exists to support the ministers, the professional leadership of the Church. We have lifted this up during the past year through the work of the Task Force on the Support of Professional Leadership. Its experimental programs have already benefited many who have participated, and further recommendations are within the project list of Mission Advance.

Further, the Conference exists to help interpret the programs and emphases of the denomination, and to promote these among all its churches. It helps to make denominational resources available to local churches (e.g. Church Building Loan funds) or for special work (e.g. Campus Ministries). It gathers and transmits the mission gifts of churches and individuals for national and world missions.

Also the Conference exists to express our ecumenical relationships within the state. Many of our local churches now work ecumenically with Catholic Churches and other Protestant churches in their communities, so too the Conference works ecumenically with the Catholic dioceses and other Protestant denominations on the state level. We are even beginning to plan for an Ecclesiastical Summit meeting for New England, probably to be held sometime in 1969. This growing state-wide and New England-wide partnership is a development of enormous future significance, and the Conference now provides the only structure through which this can be expressed.

II.

Let us now turn to the second point and take a look—and it must be a very brief look—at the world in and to which our Conference seeks to minister.

1. It is a world caught up in a whirlwind of change. This is tornado weather when even things we thought were well nailed down have come loose. Many find it a confused and frightening time. Confused it is; frightening it may be; but it is also a day of hope, and for this we should be glad.

2. All of us must look with hope and a prayer toward the negotiations in Paris where, may it please God, there is at last the beginning of the end of America's most divisive foreign war. For years, we seem to have been caught in a quagmire into which we were sinking deeper and deeper month by month to mounting anger and frustration. At last there is a ray of light.

It may be that in the end this most bitter national experience and humiliation will prove salutary. It is time we learned that we are not omnipotent and that we cannot impose our will and way upon the world—not even upon a little nation. The growing and determined opposition to our ill-starred adventure by most of the religious leadership, by an overwhelming consensus in colleges and universities, by very large segments of the business community, and by people in all walks of life reveals, I believe, a healthy conscience. Not all will agree with the more extreme positions taken by some, such as Dr. Spock and Chaplain Coffin who are on trial now here in Boston, but I for one support their right to dissent. From the days of the great prophets, those who have taken their stand on the voice of conscience—"we must obey God rather than men"—have been benefactors of mankind. I have sought to stand by and to give moral support to those of our ministers, especially, who bravely took an unpopular stand and who were misunderstood and sometimes criticized and reviled.

3. If the war in Vietnam seems far away (although it has already cost nearly 25,000 American lives), the Crisis in the Nation, the struggle for justice and human rights, is very near.

Someone said of the May 17, 1954 Supreme Court decision on school desegregation that "history kicked the door open." As so often happens, a lot of things are pouring through that open door which were not anticipated. American society and its institutions are being remade. The age-old patience of the black man is at an end, and we should thank God that it is. We whites who built our society, who made the rules, who created the laws, had our chance to establish liberty and justice for all. We were content to give them merely lip service. We really didn't want to change the status quo. We liked our privileges. We have not wanted change.

I deplore and abhor violence, as I believe we all must. But there are people who have learned that it's the quickest and most certain way to get things done. It was when the Negro began to march, to demonstrate, to sit in at lunch counters, to sit where he pleased in buses, to demand his rights that things at last began to happen. I hope and pray it will not be by the road of more and more violence,—though white people practised it against black people without protest for centuries. I believe that Martin Luther King will be remembered as one of the genuine American heroes and martyrs.

I know of nothing that speaks to our churches, to every Christian conscience, as does the injustice—especially toward that 10% of our population which is black—which we continue to tolerate in our nation. We need to search our own hearts, we need to recognize our prejudice, we need to repent, we need to change, we need to pay the price in money, in taxes, and in every other way.

I believe more and more people see this, and to me this is a sign of hope.

4. I see a lot of hope in the coming generation, the young people. Youth in America is on the march. Some of them don't know very well where they're going, and they get lost among beatniks and in hippidom. Some seem to think there are no rules any more, no standards, no absolutes. But I do not believe this is the mainstream.

There is a generation gap, there is a revolt of youth. In a sense there has always been one, or there would be no progress at all. It is probably more open, it is certainly better advertised, it is bolder than perhaps ever before, but I like a lot of the motivation I see among the youth of today.

The motivation to join the Peace Corps, to campaign for Senator McCarthy, to clean up the ghettos, to demonstrate against the war in Vietnam, and for justice to the poor and dispossessed are to me healthful and hopeful signs of our times. One of our ministers told me that the high school young people of his church are demanding to have a voice in the power structure of the church. They want to be on the Board of Trustees, on the Finance Committee, on the Church Council, in the policy-making part of the church. Our own state Youth Fellowship voted to be affiliated with the Council of the Laity. They don't want to be treated as children, but as adults. Some of us old folks may think they're pushy. They think we're just old fogey, and they're probably right. Maybe the best thing we can do is to get out of their way. At least, I see a lot of plus in what is called "the revolt of youth."

III.

In this kind of world, where are we now as a Conference? With this Annual Meeting, we are, in a sense, completing a major stage of our initial restructuring. We have elected a new Board of Directors, we've reduced the number and elected new committees, we've amended By-Laws. We had already done a good many things by way of staff development, deployment, up-grading. We hope very shortly to be able to announce further actions. We are seeking at the earliest possible moment to call a Minister of Church and Community (a portfolio to include, but not be limited to, the areas of Social Action long and ably led by Dr. Fowell). We are actively seeking a highly qualified person, black or white, to fill this sensitive and important post. We have plans well along to provide very significant new leadership in Christian Education. The new Board of Directors will immediately be asked to explore needs and opportunities for more professional assistance in the area of Church and Ministry to plan in-service training, human relations workshops, counselling services and other new and creative ways of supporting our professional leadership.

We are in an ongoing process, and I hope that we will remain flexible, and ready to change as the needs indicate. There are a lot of things to work at. We are developing our area concepts, and we are as yet unsure precisely how they should develop, or what place our Associations should have.

We still have too many churches and too many of them are too small. We need in our denomination and together with the other denominations to plan for adequate and appropriate ways of providing for every community the best possible kind of religious leadership. We need to stimulate the desire to plan and to provide incentives and help for planning.

In a day of rapid social change, we must be properly equipped to respond quickly, creatively, effectively. As a staff, we must develop just as many skills as possible to provide the leadership required. In addition, we need to do our financial planning in such a way that we always have a margin of resources which can be put to instant use when a new need arises. The need for such unallocated funds has not been so apparent until recently because one could usually foresee from year to year what the requests would be. It is no longer possible to anticipate these. Responding to the same critical pressures we feel here in our Conference, the United Church of Christ, through the Executive Council, has designated THE CRISIS IN THE NATION as the emphasis for 1970-1971, has voted that the entire Neighbors In Need offerings in 1968, 1969, 1970 and 1971 be used for the Crisis in the Nation and is asking the Conference, and also local churches, for financial support. Here is a need which we all recognize which hits us at the precise time when we are planning an Advance program containing projects directly focussed on this present Crisis. In fact, we have already committed and spent about $100,000 in that general area.

I know we shall need to do some careful planning to know how to cooperate with and participate in the national program fairly and generously. It adds fresh urgency to Mission Advance just now.

There is not a week that our Conference does not receive one or more fresh appeals, most of them good and well substantiated, for substantial assistance. Project Equality asks for our sponsorship (the cost, about $8,000 per year); the Blue Hill Christian Center wants to buy the building it occupies; the Boston Industrial Mission needs another staff person; the Spanish Mission in Worcester needs money; the Boston Redevelopment Authority asks for help to enable potential ghetto homeowners make modest down payments—and so the beat goes on! These are the typical present-day Macedonian calls. We need to be ready to respond.

IV.

What new behavior do we propose? Our Conference's action "should be servant action, responsive to the leadership of Christ in the light of who we are as a Conference, of what the world's situation is, and of what our situation is."

I suggest that as a Conference we affirm servant action especially in three directions: through our strong and enthusiastic adoption of the program of Mission Advance; through a pledge of denominational partnership; and through the faithful assumption of ecumenical leadership.

Need I say anything at all about Mission Advance? You know what I think, how I feel. We have delayed too long. We have in fact taken the decisive step, and there is only one direction, and that is forward. We have done our best to draw many persons into consultation. We have given every stage of our planning wide publicity. I think our very minimum needs are clear; I know they can be substantiated. The time is now to say "yes" together—to say it loudly, clearly, joyfully. I know of nothing that could so give wings to our work as the successful completion of a Mission Advance campaign in every one of our churches.

There is a recommended plan and a recommended procedure, as you know, but the degree of participation of each individual and of each congregation is entirely voluntary. We ask, however, that every member and every church provide the ample opportunity to take part. We have the means, that is clear. Have we the will—that we hope will be clear by the time we celebrate a victory one year from now.

May God grant us wisdom and courage for the facing of this hour, lest rich in things but poor in soul we miss the Kingdom's goal.

Our Mission Advance proposals contain a pledge of denominational partnership in the undertaking to increase our giving to national basic support by $100,000 in each of the next three years, and in our support of a new Ryder Memorial Hospital in Puerto Rico. Your annual giving to national basic support last year was almost $1,100,000 or 10% of the national total. We've increased very little the past two or three years. Connecticut has been well ahead of us. I'd like to go to the next United Church of Christ Assembly in February, 1969 and hold my head high when it is announced that in 1968 the Massachusetts Conference led all the rest!

Our partnership is shown further by an attempt being made to determine for the entire denomination what are, and what should be our Mission Priorities. I am serving on a committee which is trying, through an analysis of Conference and Mission Board budgets and programs, for the first time, to establish some kind of denominational goals and priorities. It may be an impossible attempt, but we feel it to be worth trying.

A word now about the third direction: the assumption of ecumenical leadership. Our Conference Board of Trustees, months ago, said that "the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ declares that its policy henceforth is to be to undertake no new project without seriously considering, in its formative stages, whether or not it might be developed and carried on in cooperation with one or more units of other denominations." (10/20/67)

We who are denominational executives meet several times a year and our last two meetings were entirely devoted to joint planning and even to joint staffing. We are now in process of setting up seven ad hoc committees which are to explore the possibilities of joint staffing or team staffing in seven areas: Social Relations, Metropolitan Ministries, Christian Education, Community Planning, Youth, Continuing Education and Public Relations. I believe the next several years will see some remarkable new patterns emerging in the ways in which we work together with other churches, including the Roman Catholic. And I believe this kind of behavior on our part is of the Holy Spirit.

V.

In all our planning and action, the question keeps pressing for an answer. How are we doing? Action and evaluation must go on simultaneously. I think this means focussing on the right things, establishing the right criteria. I mean asking such question as these:

How are persons being served by what we do?

How is society being influenced?

How are attitudes being changed?

Are we involved in the most significant ways?

Are we hearing what the world says to the Church and are we taking heed?

Are we open to new ideas?

Can we change our direction?

Is what we do really expressing our Christian commitment?

The institutional church is in the midst of a major crisis. There is a mighty spiritual movement going on today, and much of it is going on outside our established churches. We'd better "get with it." Our churches, our denominational structures are being weighed in the balances and many find them wanting. They do not have to be found wanting. But it must be a renewed church that sees its place in God's Mission. The selfsame judgment hangs over the Massachusetts Conference. It too must be renewed by the cleansing of the Holy Spirit and see its place in God's Mission. To this we are called.

VI.

Finally, celebration! We are called as Christians to rejoice. "Let this joy be in you which was also in Christ Jesus." "Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say, Rejoice. In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God."

I call us all to this this coming year. Walking together in the King's high way—to walk with joy and thanksgiving. Mindful of His goodness, to be grateful and glad. In worship in our churches, around the Lord's table—always to remember and give thanks.

What better can we do than recall the words of the ancient Psalmist:

"What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord NOW in the presence of all his people."

Let us vow, now, to walk together, rejoicing, in all the ways known or to be made known to us during this coming year. He will use us in his service. He will bring us to His goal.

At the conclusion of the President's Report, Dr. Penner was accorded a rising vote of confidence and appreciation.

At 11:00 a.m., coffee was served and delegates and guests were invited to discuss question related to Mission Advance.

Following the coffee break, the Moderator called the Rev. Prentis Moore, Roxbury, to the podium for the presentation of a resolution. It was moved and VOTED:

- 1) That an all-out effort be made to find qualified black persons to fill all vacancies on the Conference staff.
- 2) That the Conference urge all pulpit committees to seek out and consider black candidates for pulpit vacancies.
- 3) That an accelerating and continuing effort be made to elect blacks to the Board of Directors and to all Standing Committees of the Conference.
- 4) That the Conference instruct the Board of Directors to explore ways and means to support projects of economic self-determination within the Black Community, and to release funds for such projects.
- 5) That a commitment be made by the Massachusetts Conference, its associations, and local churches to deal with White racism in ourselves and in our structures.
- 6) That the Massachusetts Conference join and support, along with the other major denominations Project Equality."

The Rev. Franklin Dorman of North Amherst presented a resolution on Reconciliation and peace at Home and Abroad but discussion was delayed for the Order of the Day.

The Committee on Church and Mission was called upon to present the program of Mission Advance. Under the leadership of Mr. Albert O. Wilson, Jr., Lexington, Chairman, and the Rev. Paul E. Shanabrook, Minister of Church and Mission, the story of Mission Advance was told by film, tape recording and first-hand verbal reporting, highlighting and interpreting the written reports of suggested projects and tentative goals which were in the hands of the delegates.

At 12:30 p.m., box lunches were served and the delegates and guests were invited to use the luncheon time for discussion of Mission Advance.

At 1:45 p.m., the Moderator, Mr. David W. Bartlett, called the meeting to order and time was given for questions from the floor regarding the Mission Advance proposal. Various members of the Committee on Church and Mission responded to the questions. Following an hour of questions and discussion, it was moved, seconded and

VOTED: That WHEREAS, the recessed Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, held in Worcester on October 28, 1967, took the following action:

"We acknowledge the existence of urgent special needs within Massachusetts. We therefore approve the plan being made for a special three-year financial campaign of over and above gifts for Massachusetts Mission Advance, including the action of the Trustees, (a) in engaging the firm of Marts & Lundy, Inc. for an initial survey and, their report so indicating, (b) the holding of such a campaign in the latter half of 1968 and the first half of 1969," and

WHEREAS, Marts and Lundy, Inc., on the basis of its survey held in January and February, 1968, has so indicated and recommends "that the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ embark on a program to meet its most urgent priority needs, and

WHEREAS, Marts & Lundy, Inc., has stated, on the basis of this survey, that we can raise a goal of $2,000,000, and

WHEREAS, Marts & Lundy, Inc., has recommended certain procedures if we are to raise this goal, namely

- a) conducting a major gifts effort, and
- b) holding a person to person solicitation in the churches:

Therefore, be it RESOLVED that: the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ assembled in Boston on this 25th day of May, 1968, (1) formally approve and adopt a Mission goal of $2,000,000 for projects, to be raised over a period of 3 years in accordance with the general procedures outlined by Marts & Lundy, Inc. in their Fund-raising Survey Report; and

(2) We approve the project list of priority needs presented at this meeting by the Church and Mission Committee. In gratitude to God for His blessing and for the privilege of being co-workers with Him, we commend Mission Advance to all our churches and people urging them to participate with a sense of joyful privilege, that our giving may be in proportion to the dimension of the need and our ability to give."

The Moderator then invited Mr. John Carlson of Marts & Lundy, Inc. to outline the campaign procedures and the time schedule. Following Mr. Carlson's remarks, Dr. Penner was given the floor to express his gratitude for the action taken and he led in prayer:

Our Father in Heaven, you have called us to be servants of men. We thank you for eyes to see their needs and ears to hear their cries. Give us the spirit of Jesus that our service may be without self-seeking and wholly for the good of others. Give us faith as together we undertake this program of Mission Advance and joy as together we carry it through that our work may advance your will for men and bring nearer the day of your Kingdom's coming here among us and everywhere.

Amen.

Mr. Leonard Allen, Needham, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the nominations for the five Conference Committees. The printed ballot with the names of the Conference Officers and Executive Staff and the Board of Directors had been passed out the day before. These were now marked and collected by the ushers.

It was moved and seconded and VOTED: That the membership of the Conference Committees (Church and Mission, Church and Education, Church and Ministry, Church and Education, Church and Leadership) and the Council of the Laity be elected as presented.

The Rev. Robert Scott, Jr., Weston, Chairman of the Budget Committee, presented motions regarding Per Capita and the retention of Our Christian World Mission monies. It was moved, seconded and VOTED: That the Per Capita fellowship dues for 1969 be increased by 10c per member to $1.50.

It was further moved and VOTED: That in 1969, the Conference's share of Our Christian World Mission receipts be $240,000, an increase of $15,000 over 1967 and 1968.

The Rev. Franklin A. Dorman, North Amherst, was called to the platform to bring the resolution on Reconciliation and Peace at Home and Abroad before the Conference for consideration. Following discussion, it was moved and

VOTED: WHEREAS the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ can be defined primarily in terms of a ministry of reconciliation, and

WHEREAS this nation is presently engaged in a conflict in Southeast Asia, the justice, morality and wisdom of which is being seriously questioned by many Christians the world over, and

WHEREAS civil disturbances due to racial tension in our cities constitute a grave and imminent threat to the internal security of this nation,

Therefore, be it RESOLVED:

- 1) that the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ establish an Ad-Hoc Committee for Racial and International Peace, to operate in the summer of 1968 under the direction of and in cooperation with the Church and Community Committee;
- 2) that the Board of Directors be asked to make available emergency funds in the amount of $5,000 for the proper functioning of this committee;
- 3) that this committee proceed to establish Centers for Racial and International Peace throughout the Commonwealth, working wherever possible through existing church and secular structures on an ecumenical basis;
- 4) that the purposes of these Peace Centers be educational in nature, so that by political and non-violent means, there may be brought about a reversal of the present public attitudes, which tend to put too much reliance upon the use of military and police power, at home and abroad, for the solution of political, social and economic problems.

The Rev. Donald Overlock, Fitchburg, asked for a study of the relationship between Per Capita dues and Our Christian World Mission. It was moved, seconded, and VOTED: "The Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ instruct the Committee on Church and Mission to study the relationship between per-capita dues and Our Christian World Mission, looking toward their possible combination. That the committee be further instructed to report the results of its study, together with its recommendations, at the next Annual Meeting of the Conference."

The Moderator announced the returns of the election of Conference officers, executive staff and Board of Directors: 496 unanimous ballots; 5 incomplete or not clear. The Moderator declared the slate duly elected.

The new Vice-Moderator, the Rev. Herbert R. Smith of Needham, was escorted to the platform and recognized.

Mr. Clayton R. Ford gave a brief report for the Committee on Compensation. He explained in particular the plans being formulated for a Parsonage Equity fund and the work of the Richard L. Aberdon Company which is making a careful tax study of the new plan. It is expected that a preliminary report of this plan will be available in time for the Fall budget committee meetings in local churches.

Mr. Loomis Patrick, speaking from the floor of the Conference, presented a resolution in memory of Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, former Conference Counsel. It was unanimously moved, seconded and VOTED: "WHEREAS Lucius E. Thayer, one of the most active and distinguished laymen of the Conference, a member of First Church, Newton, passed away on April 8, 1968 in California, and

WHEREAS this Annual Meeting desires to express and to record its deep sense of loss and its appreciation for his life and service,

Now, therefore, be it RESOLVED that the 169th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ recognizes the significant contributions of Lucius E. Thayer in service, in interest, and in treasure, as Moderator, as Chairman of the Board of Trustees, as Chairman of many committees and for many years as legal counsel of the Conference,

We acknowledge in particular with deep gratitude his intelligent advice and wise judgment in many Conference matters, legal and ecclesiastical;

We acknowledge the integrity of his character, his friendliness, his kindly gentle spirit, his high standing in the legal profession and his status as a most distinguished layman of our Conference;

Now, therefore, be it further RESOLVED that this minute be adopted to be spread on the official records of the Conference and that copies hereof be sent to Mrs. Thayer and other members of his family.

A moment of silence was observed in honor of Mr. Thayer.

Upon recommendation of the Rev. H. Milton Bartlett, Boylston, it was moved and VOTED: "WHEREAS, Dr. Albert J. Penner commented in his report of the concern for the involvement of youth in the total life of the local church including financial, and

WHEREAS under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts the legal age for participation in financial affairs is twenty-one,

Be it RESOLVED, that the Board of Directors of the Conference be asked to refer to the Council on the Laity and the Committee on Church and Community to determine the desirability of petitioning the General Court to reduce the legal voting age to eighteen."

The Rev. Robert W. Little, Holden, a member of the Business Committee, presented a resolution regarding hospitality. It was moved and

VOTED: WHEREAS, the hospitality we have experienced while in attendance at this 169th Annual Meeting of the State Conference has been extended to us from many hands and hearts, and the planning for our comfort, convenience and stimulation has come from many minds, and

WHEREAS, the people of Old South Church have served graciously as our chief hosts, assisted well by the First Baptist Church, Trinity Church, the Church of the Covenant and the City of Boston to our joy and satisfaction, and

WHEREAS, our vision has been widened, our Christian commitment challenged and empowered, our worship given contemporary and vital expression, and our awareness of our fellowmen of every race, speech, creed and condition brought dramatically into focus during these two days of significant involvement, and

WHEREAS, all of this has further served as a fitting climax to the long series of Annual Meeting programs in which Dr. Myron W. Fowell has played a quiet, but leading role;

Be it therefore RESOLVED, that we, the delegates and guests in attendance at this 169th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ, do heartily express our appreciation to all who have helped to make our several and personal experiences of Christian worship, fellowship, stewardship and thought so meaningful; and

Be it further RESOLVED, that this resolution be adopted by a rising vote of appreciation.

The Credentials Committee, the Rev. J. Thurston Powell, Tewksbury, Chairman, made the following report:

284 ministers
554 delegates
329 guests
<hr/> 1,167 Total

The Chaplain, the Rev. Harold R. Fray, led in the closing devotions.

The meeting adjourned at 5:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

THE REVEREND ALBERT J. PENNER, D.D., *President*Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ
Boston, Massachusetts

We have examined the balance sheets of MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST and of MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST, TRUSTEE, as at December 31, 1967, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at December 31, 1967, were verified by inspection or confirmation, and the cash in banks and in office by certificate or count.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Conference and of the Conference as Trustee, respectively, at December 31, 1967, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ are used to assist needy churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donors, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum ofDollars.

Composed of the U.C.C. and Congregational churches of the Metropolitan Boston Association, its original object was "to promote religion and morality in Boston and the outlying cities and towns, by establishment and support of evangelical Congregational Churches, Sunday-schools, and Missions." Since 1939 it has had a Board of Directors interlocking with the officers of the Massachusetts Conference. Its promotional functions have been turned over to the Conference. Its Board of Directors administers the permanent funds of which it is Trustee.

CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY, BOSTON, INC. 1820

President, STUART C. HASKINS

Vice-President, ARTHUR V. GETCHELL

Vice-President, JAMES E. GALLAGHER

Clerk, MR. ROBERT CHAFFEE

(Acting Executive Secretary, HORACE M. BESECKER, JR.)

Treasurer, S. CARLISLE CROSBY

Staff: full-time 17; part-time (including summer program) 70

The City Missionary Society has been the social service arm of Congregational churches in Metropolitan Boston since 1816. It now has an important place in the life of the Metropolitan Boston Association, whose constitution refers to the Society as "a recognized instrumentality of the Metropolitan Boston Association." Committees of Metropolitan Boston Association and of City Missionary Society are working together on several programs.

CMS holds membership in the Family Service Section of the Greater Boston Community Council, The American Conference of Social Work, and the New England Camping Association. Its nine missionary social workers are attached to Congregational churches in the inner city, and they work closely with public and private social agencies.

The Society's social workers are aided by many volunteers who engage in numerous useful services of visitation, teaching, manual labor, etc. A Voluntary Case-Aide program has 20 dedicated volunteers from Roxbury and from several suburban communities, assisting the Boston Redevelopment Authority in efforts to relocate multi-problem families. The CMS' Consultant in Christian Education aids inner city churches in programs of leadership education. Through her supervision of "Friendly Town" activities she also helps many small communities to understand inner city people by arranging for them to become "hosts" to city children for two-week summer vacations.

The Society's summer camping programs provide meaningful activity for children of all ages and for adult members of low-income families. Camps Andover-Waldron on Lake Winnisquam, in Meredith, N. H., are open to children 9-16 years of age. They provide opportunities for interracial and intercultural contacts in a Christian setting. Family camps and week-end retreats for church groups are held under CMS sponsorship at the Farrington Memorial property in Lincoln, Mass.

CMS receives no income from United Funds. Principal support comes from Congregational Churches in Metropolitan Boston, from interested individuals and trust funds, and from endowment. Much aid in relief comes from the Howard Benevolent Society. Many churches and Sunday Schools regularly aid with collections of clothing, furniture, Christmas gifts, and special funds.

The Society's income in the fiscal year ending October 31, 1967 was $332,165 (this amount included legacies of $60,151, some of which were for limited use). 95 of the 110 churches in the Metropolitan Boston Association contributed $52,629; 52 churches of other associations and denominations gave a total of $4,910. The operating deficit in 1967 was $52,436.

City Missionary Society was incorporated in 1820. Its corporate members are elected at the annual meeting, held in November each year. Every supporting congregation is entitled to nominate a representative to serve for a two-year term on the corporation.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

President	NORMAN G. ORRELL
Vice President	GEORGE F. BICKFORD
Treasurer	ARTHUR B. KEMP
Secretary	MRS. JAMES E. QUIRK
Auditor	GEORGE B. EDWARDS

Aids Worcester Churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

THE CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY OF THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

(Proprietor of the Congregational House)

ROOM 207, 14 BEACON STREET, BOSTON

The Congregational Library was founded in 1853 to gather and preserve books, pamphlets and manuscripts on Congregational history and to promote the general interests of Congregational churches. In addition to the historic collection on Congregationalism the library has important collections of Bibles, in a variety of languages and versions, hymnals, and histories of local churches and towns. New books, with the exception of fiction, are purchased every week in the fields of: preaching and pastoral work, philosophy and theology, Biblical commentary, church history, religious education, worship and devotion, missions and the ecumenical movement, church arts and architecture, denominations, sects, and world religions, social problems, and biography.

These resources, approximately 200,000 books and pamphlets, are available to ministers, lay preachers, church officers, church school teachers, students, and all interested in reading for enrichment of life. Books are mailed without charge to all parts of the United States. A letter or postcard giving author, title or the subject of books desired, will receive prompt attention. The Library is open for study and research Monday through Friday, 9-5. A copy of a leaflet, "The Congregational Library" and the Bulletin will be sent to those writing for further information.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Grants for the aid of churches and certain other types of work are made by the Conference through the Board of Directors, following recommendation by the Committee on Church and Mission.

Grants are made to local churches (to strengthen the ministry of the church); to hospital chaplaincies; to week-day religious education programs in certain churches; to the Ecumenical Center in Roxbury; to other inter-denominational projects in Massachusetts; and other work as need arises. In co-operation with the Committee on Education grants are made for student work through the United Ministries in higher education.

Requests for grants come to the Committee on Church and Mission through the member of the Conference executive staff who is particularly concerned either with the area or the type of work.

Grants to local churches are made under the following circumstances:

1. Where a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by a church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local association of churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid, different amounts will be appropriated according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the Area Minister or President before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. When the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and church worker and has approved a salary scale.

The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received conference grants in the year 1967 by placing the reference "$" before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled, "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears.

All grants coincide with the calendar year. Applications must be processed through the association grants committee, or the committee on campus ministries and presented to the area minister by October 1.

Special grants are listed on page 57.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the National Year Book;

2. The Associations of Churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational and United Church of Christ churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1968. Admissions and removals cover the year 1967. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1968, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools," and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational and United Church of Christ ministers may be found in the lists of the local associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:

"Cld." — Called

"C." — Confession

Reference marks are used as follows:

y Pastor serves more than one church.

—Where no answer can be given.

A—When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday school and young people's organizations, also home expense, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked A in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Amount of "Local Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday school, choir and parish.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational or United Church of Christ churches within the federated churches. Figures pertaining to Church School enrollment, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

ALPHABETICAL LIST

All ordained United Church of Christ and Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some association in Massachusetts related to the Conference.

*United Church of Christ and Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

†Ministers of other demoninations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE: — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Conference office.

MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS

Dates from the earliest times of the colony. Annual Business and Public meeting is held at 10:30 A.M., the first Monday in May. At this service several addresses are made and a collection is taken which, together with the income of the Convention fund, is distributed to the needy widows and daughters of deceased Congregational ministers.

Every Trinitarian Congregational and Unitarian Congregational minister resident in Massachusetts is ex officio a member of the Convention.

OFFICERS—Moderator, Rev. Robert B. Day, 112 Mt. Vernon St., Boston 02108; Treasurer, Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy 02169; Scribe, Rev. Harold F. Worthley, Box 1026, Norton 02766.

DIRECTORS—Rev. J. Allyn Bradford, 14 High St., Andover 01810; Rev. John K. Hammon, 874 Beacon St., Boston.

Applications for aid may be addressed to either the Moderator or the Treasurer.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY

Incorporated in 1786. Organized to hold the funds of the Convention. Composed of fifteen clergymen and fifteen laymen, elected from both branches of the Congregational body. Aids the needy widows and unmarried daughters of deceased Congregational clergymen who have had settlement in Massachusetts. President, Hon. Charles S. Bolster; Vice-President, Mr. Marcus Morton; Secretary, Rev. Bradford E. Gale; Treasurer, Mr. Alfred P. Putnam; Committee on Appropriations, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Rev. Bradford E. Gale, Rev. Vaughan Dabney and Rev. Robert B. Day.

Applications for aid should be made to Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy 02169.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $12,881,036, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.
